butter and oleomargarine; to license the manufacture and sale of renovated butter and oleomargarine; to regulate the business of producing, buying, and selling dairy products, oleomargarine, renovated or imitation butter, and cheese; to provide for the enforcement of its provisions and for the punishment of violations thereof, and appropriating money therefor, and to repeal section 17 of an act approved March 4, 1897, entitled 'An act to prevent deception in the manufacture and sale of butter and cheese, to secure its enforcement, and to appropriate money therefor,' and to repeal all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act," approved April 21, 1911.

SEC. 13. Any person, firm, or corporation violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $200, and in case such fine be not paid, then by imprisonment in the city prison of the city of Oakland at the rate of one day for every $2 of the fine so imposed.

SEC. 14. Ordinances No. 2377 and No. 1618, and all other ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith, are hereby repealed.

Boarding Houses for Children—License Required. (Ord. 295 N. S., June 12, 1912.)

SECTION 1. No person, firm, or corporation shall within the city of Oakland establish or maintain, conduct or manage any institution, boarding house, home or other place for the reception or care of children, or shall keep at any such place any child under the age of 12 years, not his relative, apprentice, or ward, without legal commitment, without first having obtained therefor a license from the bureau of permits of the city of Oakland. Said license shall be issued only upon a permit issued by the health department and with the approval and upon the recommendation of the health officer and upon the payment by the applicant of $20 for one fiscal year or any unexpired portion thereof, paid quarterly in advance.

SEC. 2. The bureau of permits and licenses, upon the recommendation of the health officer and upon the payment of said license fee provided for in section 1 of this ordinance, shall have the power to issue licenses for such places, upon permits issued therefor by the health department. Every such permit shall specify the name and residence of the person so undertaking the care of such children and the location of the place where the same are kept or proposed to be kept, and the number of children thereby allowed to be received, boarded, or kept therein, and such permit shall be revocable for cause by the said health officer in any case where the provisions of this ordinance are violated, or in any case where, in the opinion of the health officer, such institution, home, boarding house, or other place for the care or reception of children is being conducted, managed, or maintained without proper regard for the health, comfort, or morality of the inmates thereof, or without due regard to proper sanitary or hygienic arrangements or appliances.

SEC. 3. Every person holding such permit must keep a register, wherein he shall enter the names and ages of all such children and the names and residences of their parents so far as known, the time of the reception and discharge of such children and the reasons therefor, and also the name and age of every child who is given out, adopted, taken away, or indentured from such place to or by any person, together with the name and address of the person so adopting, taking away, or indenturing such child, and within 48 hours after such child is so given out, taken away, or indentured shall cause a correct copy of the register relating to such child to be sent to the health officer.

SEC. 4. It shall be the duty of the health officer and all other representatives of the health department at all reasonable times to enter and inspect the premises wherein such children are so boarded, received, and kept and to call for and inspect the permit and register, and also to see and visit such children.

SEC. 5. Ordinance No. 2315 and all other ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

SEC. 6. Every person, firm, or corporation violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $100, and in case such fine be not paid, then by imprisonment in the city prison of the city of Oakland at the rate of one day for every $2 of the fine so imposed.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y.

Board of Health—Duties of Secretary. (Reg. Bd. of H., June 3, 1912.)

ARTICLE 1. SECTION 1. The secretary shall keep a record of all cases of contagious diseases that may be from time to time reported to him by the attending physician, health officer, or any member of the board, or that may otherwise come to his knowledge. He shall also keep an accurate record of the proceedings of the board, and shall enter upon such record all orders made by the board and all reports made by individual members thereof, or by the health officer, and shall make such reports to the State board of health as the existing laws may require, and perform such other duties as may be imposed by statute or by the board of health.

SEC. 2. The secretary shall cause a record to be made by the town clerk of all certificates of births, marriages, or deaths that shall be received by him, and the town clerk shall be allowed the sum of 25 cents for making such record and forwarding said certificate to the State board of health.

Board of Health—Duties of Health Officers. (Reg. Bd. of H., June 3, 1912.)

ART. 2. SECTION 1. It shall be the duty of the health officer on or before the 1st day of each and every month to be at the office of the secretary of the board of health to receive, examine, and secure the registration of the secretary of all certificates and records of death and causes of death. He shall execute all orders issued by the board directing him to take necessary steps for the abatement of any nuisance found existing within the jurisdiction of the said board. He shall visit any person or persons reported to be sick with cholera, diphtheria, smallpox, varioloid, scarlet fever, yellow fever, or any other infectious or contagious disease, and shall cause all persons who may be affected with any such disease, if consistent with public safety, to be strictly and efficiently quarantined upon the premises where the same may be first discovered, and he shall also prohibit any person from leaving or entering such premises while the necessity for such quarantine exists, without his consent. It shall be the duty of the health officer to send necessary supplies and articles for the use of and at the expense of the person or persons so quarantined if they be in circumstances to afford the same; but if it be a poor person, the same may be charged against the board of health of the town of Oyster Bay; and the health officer shall report to the board all assistance so rendered, and the expense of the same in each case. And in case of violation by any person of such quarantine, the person so offending is liable to a penalty of $50. It shall be his duty to report to the board the name of any physician who shall refuse or neglect to report any case under treatment by him of any contagious or infectious disease, and perform such other duties as may be required by law.

Births and Deaths—Registration of. (Reg. Bd. of H., June 3, 1912.)

ART. 3. SECTION 1. Every physician and every midwife (where there is no physician in attendance) practicing within the town of Oyster Bay shall transmit to the secretary of the board of health, who is hereby designated as the registrar of said board of health for that purpose, a statement in writing of every birth or death occurring within the scope of his or her practice—births within 36 hours and deaths within 24 hours after the happening of such birth or death. * * *
